OFFICE OF THE INSPECTING OFFICER,
HYDERABAD & MYSORE I. S. CAVALRY.
SECTION 18th December 1899
FILE No. 170-99.
SERIAL No.

My Dear Jones,

Jamadar Faiz Najayat Ali's case was brought to my notice by the Commanding Officer some time ago. It was at that time a case of absence without leave, for which youth and ignorance might be some excuse, though an insubordinate spirit was shown.

2. I was at that time prepared to recommend an ordinary trial by court martial, after the Jamadar's return to duty at the expiry of his sick leave.

3. Last Friday (15th December) however the Com-manding Officer brought to my notice a petition*, from the Jamadar to the Chief Commandant, which he had received one or two days previously from the Chief Commandant, for report.

* attached

4. I asked the Commanding Officer to bring a translation of this petition, with all the papers* in the case, to me on Saturday 16th December. It seem to me that the case was now a serious one, so I went to see the Chief Commandant about it this morning.

* resume attached

5. We both came to the conclusion that the case should now be dealt with promptly, as gross insubordination had been shown in the last petition, which required summary treatment. otherwise the Jamadar might continue to send in sick certificates and further annoy every one concerned with cor-respondence, which you will see has already reached consi-derable proportions. And discipline would suffer.

The case against the Jamadar is this.

(1) He absented himself without leave from 25th October to 10th November.

(2) Contrary to regimental rule he corresponded with his Commanding Officer direct, instead of through his Squadron Commander.

(3) He showed further insubordination by appealing to the Chief Commandant direct, not through the Commanding Officer.

(4) He showed gross insubordination in the terms of his last petition.

7. As I am going away on 10 days leave to the Gersoppa Falls, I thought, to save delay, I would write and give you my opinion, before it was referred to me in ordinary course.

The Chief Commandant and myself agreed this morning that in sending up the case to the Mysore Government he should recommend the Jamadars summary dismissal from the service of the Mysore Government.

9. In this I fully concur, as though the discipline of the regiment as a whole is excellent, still this is the second case, since the passing of the Indian Law, in which an officer has palpably considered that his social position will save him from the punishment merited by insubordinate conduct.

10. The Jamadars prompt dismissal "for absence without leave and insubordination" by order of the Mysore Government will I trust prevent a repetition of this class of offence.

11. I hope that this sentence may be worded so as to

To

The Hugn Jamadar of Hazarah Pryone State Troops

Chief Commandant Subhik Bahadur.

Jamadar T. Dr. Dair Nagut Ali Khan most respectfully solicits.

I have already informed your honor through a direct application, that I took leave on account of the illness of my family and the illness not having been cured, I wrote to the regiment to get me 3 months leave without pay. Without paying any consideration to my cause I was informed that the leave applied for could not be sanctioned etc.

Received by C. O. on 12th Nov. forwarded to C.C. for orders on 13/14th Nov. C.C. sanctions this 27th recd. 29th Nov by C.O. Intimated to Jamadar on 2nd Dec.

Besides this no sanction of leave is granted to me yet, on my application of the 10th November 1899 (forwarded with the Civil Surgeon's certificate) informing that I am ill and the Civil Surgeon has been treating me.

I have herein enclosed for favour of your honor's perusal a copy of the above certificate.

If the higher authority does not pay regard to the cause & dipficulty of the subordinate & means to make me run away by treating in this way, the subordinate is quite helpless.

On account of this I pray your honor to give me the same respect, as your honor did give me during the last 3 years of service.

As per Government Proceedings No 1531-32/112 dated 13th April 1899, I was transferred as a volunteer by your honor from the Local Service Cavalry, for a few days only, on the understanding that the L. S. Cavalry will become Imperial, which has not been done.

If I were to remain permanent there, the disgrace in that regiment as well as the dipficulties of household extraordinary expenses, are known to your honor, notwithstanding this the trouble given to me by the higher authority during the present difficulties, might have been evident to your honor.

In conclusion the humble servant with the greatest respect implore your honor to take my humble case into kind consideration & grant me 3 months leave as solicited and to transfer me to the Local Service Regiment in which I was.

My dear Jasker

With reference to the case of Mir Rajaiyat alli Khan Jamadar of the I.S. Lancers

The Chief Comd[r] has not submitted any papers. I however took your note to the Dewan this morning and as you are in agreement with the C.C. that discipline demands this young officer should be summarily dismissed. I will is prepared to give this order.

With reference to an order that dismissed officers should be put on a proscribed list

The Darbar [illegible] are of opinion

~~that this~~ punishment should be reserved for cases of moral obliquity or where the ~~convict~~ culprit has been guilty of dishonorable conduct of some sort.

You must not understand from the above that Govt are prepared to give Civil Appointments to dismissed Military Officers but merely that the Durbar consider it is unnecessary to pass a hard and fast rule of the description advocated.

Yours truly

Sir,

In forwarding herewith the petition of Jemadar Mir Nayayet Ali Khan of the Imperial Service Regiment with the report of the Regimentdar thereon, I have the honor to state that the Jemadar was granted 10 days Casual leave by the Regimentdar on 16th October 1899 on a representation being made by him that his wife was very ill at Mysore. The Jemadar [illegible] himself of leave, but instead of returning to duty when it expired, he stopped in Mysore and wrote to the Regimentdar for an extension of leave which the latter did not grant owing to its being the drill season.

The Regimentdar having wired to him to rejoin at once the Jemadar replied by wire that he was ill and sent in a Medical Certificate. The sick leave was sanctioned but it was noted that the Jemadar had overstayed his leave by 16 days when he sent the

Medical

Medical Certificate.

The sick leave has been further extended by one month on the recommendation of the Medical Officer, but I beg to point out to Government that not only is the overstay of leave by the Jemadar but his subsequent Conduct also in addressing petitions with statements entirely groundless is strongly objected to by the Regimentdar and I agree with the Inspecting Officer in thinking that the matter is to be seriously noticed and that the retention of the Jemadar in Service is under the circumstances undesirable.

Regimentdar's Reports Nos: 222 and 232 enclosed give a Complete history of the Case.

I have the honor to be,

With reference to the above has the honor to forward herewith a telegram received from Jamadar Mir Najat Ali Khan, on the 10th Idem, (in reply to this office message of the 9th Current, directing him to join on duty at once.) and also a true copy of the Medical certificate No. 75, dated 10th November 1899, received by post on the 12th.

A copy of the Jamadar's Casualty Report dated 10th November 1895, has also been enclosed for information. In the report he states that his family is ill, and there is none to look after them, but the certificate shows that he himself is suffering from Malaria.

Since the date of the expiry of the casual leave (granted to him without allowances), he has been applying for further extension, on the plea that his wife is ill, but when the telegram referred to reached him, he has forwarded a certificate of his own illness.

As per medical certificate Jamadar Mir Hajat Ali Khan, has overstayed his leave by 16 days, and then admitted himself sick.

the leave given by the Regimental dar was Casual leave without pay: As Government has expressly provided that an Officer availing himself of more than ten days ~~that~~ leave should lose allowances, I do not see why short leave should be refused in cases of urgency unless there were special reasons for it. The Jemadar might have thought (I don't say he does think so) that having got leave without pay the intention of it on this ground could be easily got

3 As he has now sent in the Medical Certificate I think leave has to be given as this cannot be questioned
The Certificate however does not specify the day from which he has been ailing.

Refer a yr note overleaf I gave my opinion as above

I do not think we have made any Rule in Bngore regarding 10 days leave. Leg restricted to once in every 3 months it might be well to hap an order to this effect. As a Commandant might by continuous grant of 10 days
let an Offrs remain absent from duty for an indefinitely lengthy period

As regards this case - he Secundar if unable to return within the 10 days of his leave should have reported sick. & send in a Certificate from a Local Civil or qualified Surgeon.

I do not think it wd be wise to hap any orders regarding this Secundar until he has returned & is in a position to let you know the facts of the case -

I should tell him that he shd have reported sick if unable to return within the 4 days of his leave. and that you will enquire into this & issue orders thereon when he returns.
In the meantime as he is ill he will be granted
one months extension of leave without pay on the Certificate of the Surgeon which has been received & if still ill when time to rejoin comes he must again submit a med certificate.

As regards his family he has already had ample leave to make arrangements for them & if he cannot leave them I return & that his resignation will be accepted

Enclosure No. four

His No. 272, of the 18th instant, forwarding for information and report, a petition from Jamadar Mir Najat Ali Khan of D. Squadron, regarding leave.

With reference to the above has the honor to report that the Jamadar referred to, in the beginning of october last, represented that there were none to look after his sick wife here, in Bangalore he wanted to send her off to her her father's house at Pilgunda. There being none to accompany her, he applied for 10 days casual leave. He himself was on the sick list, with dysentery the undersigned intended to grant him the leave on his discharge from Hospital.

The very next day or so he sent his wife to Mysore. After the lapse of a few days, he again applied for 10 days casual leave to go to Mysore & the leave was refused. In the meantime he had an accident during Polo practice and admitted sick. On the very day he was discharged from Hospital he received a deferred message from Mysore, stating that there were none to look after his wife there, and his presence was necessary. On the receipt of this telegram he was granted 10 days leave. On the expiration of the same he applied for further extension, on the plea that there were none at Mysore to look after his wife. And it was refused.

This shows that the Jamadar has purposely been applying for leave with some object of his own.

Had there been none at Mysore (the native place) to look after his wife he should have kept her in Bangalore, or brought her back with him after the conclusion of the casual leave.

His conduct in sending her to Mysore, when she was ill and now staying away there and applying for leave, on the plea that there are none to look after her, and submitting a copy of a medical certificate about his own illness, after over staying his

Sir,

With reference to your letter to me d/ 15th March 1900.

I can only repeat what I told you when you called upon me viz that it is absolutely necessary to maintain very strict discipline in a corps intended for Imperial Service and for an Officer serving in such a corps to overstaying leave is an act which cannot be overlooked.

I am very sorry for you but Govt cannot interfere in this matter

Your offence is however not one involving any moral obliquity & I hope that in a year or so you will be able to obtain some civil appointment suitable to your birth and attainments.
